To: BDDS Stakeholders

From: Beth Goodrich, Director of BDDS Provider Relations

Re: Provider Qualifications for Participant Assistance and Care for the Family Supports Waiver and Transportation Services for the Community Integration and Habilitation Waiver

Date: August 24, 2012

Participant Assistance Care (PAC):

- Providers wanting to add PAC to their list of services must be approved by DDRS to provide Residential Habilitation and Support (RHS).
- All current DDRS-approved RHS providers wanting to add PAC must submit, in writing, a request to add this service to BDDS Provider Relations, and BDDS Provider Relations will add the PAC service. Please email the request to Beth Goodrich at Beth.Goodrich@fssa.in.gov.

Transportation Services—CIH Waiver only:

- Depending upon the needs of the participant, there are three levels of transportation. The level of transportation service needed must be documented in the ISP.
  - o Level 1: Transportation in a private, commercial, or public transit vehicle that is not specially equipped.
    - Rate: $5 per trip
    - Cap: $2,500
  - o Level 2: Transportation in a private, commercial, or public transit vehicle specially designed to accommodate wheelchairs.
    - Rate: $20 per trip
    - Cap: $5,000
  - o Level 3: Transportation in a vehicle specially designed to accommodate a participant who for medical reasons must remain prone during transportation (e.g., ambulette).
    - $40 per trip
    - Cap: $7,500

**Note: Transportation has not changed for the FSW.

Information regarding provider qualifications for RHS3 will be announced soon.
